

Nomination For Membership

The Club is subject to the provision of the Privacy Act 1988

The personal information provided by you in this Nomination for Membership will be used to process your membership application. You are not obliged to complete those details which you do not wish to disclose, but this may mean that your nomination is delayed, or possibly rejected.

You have the right to access and amend any of the personal information held by the Club.

The Club must protect the privacy of the information which is collected, stored, used or disclosed. The Club will do this by taking reasonable steps to ensure that the personal information which you give to the Club is protected against any misuse, loss, unauthorised access or disclosure.

As part of the nomination for membership, and in accordance with the Club Constitution, your name will be placed on the Club's noticeboard, in the Annual Report and on the Private members section of the Club's website.

The Club will not usually disclose your personal information to any other organisation or person unless there is a legal requirement to do so.

If you have any questions or concerns about this Nomination or the privacy requirements which now exist, please contact the Club.
