

MINI SERIES UPDATES

Saturday 17th February mini 2024 SERIES  Royal Perth Yacht Club

Racing on our Alpha and Bravo courses kicked off at 1200hrs on the dot, with Charlie beginning at 1400hrs.

All courses completed the five scheduled races in record speed, even with the minimal breeze, and the occasional light gust.

DAY ONE | REFINED EDGE MINI SERIES

A great but hot start to the very anticipated 2024 Refined Edge Mini Series. With 41 degrees on the forecast we had a 92 dedicated boats turn up to start at 0800hrs.

With the AP flag up for the morning our sailors had a chance to enjoy the cool Clubhouse, and even an early lunch at the Catalina Bar.

We have three races on the schedule tomorrow in a toasty 43 degrees.

Thank you to all our amazing volunteers, race officers, sponsors and competitors! See you tomorrow!

MINI SERIES UPDATES

Sunday 18th February

mini 20
SERIES 24

Royal Perth Yacht Club

Our Alpha and Bravo competitors managed to have a sleep in, only hitting Matilda Bay waters around 0900hrs.

Alpha coursed managed to snag in one race, with Bravo struggling to wind the breeze. Racing was abandoned at 1030hrs, with the Mini Series being completed!

DAY TWO | REFINED EDGE MINI SERIES

A very hot one for the final day of the Refined Edge Mini Series. With no wind, and 43 degrees we had our sights set on completing the remaining three races of the series.

Charlie course competitors set off nice and early to catch the wind. Managing to complete seven races, with Techno boards finishing eight.

And now onto presentations! We cannot wait to see who our series winners are!

Thank you to all our amazing volunteers, race officers, sponsors and competitors! See you in 2025!
